

PATIENT INFORMATION:

Patient: WRAMC VC-192M
Patient ID:
Study Date: 2/5/2003
Referring Physician: HWANG INKU

INTRODUCTION:

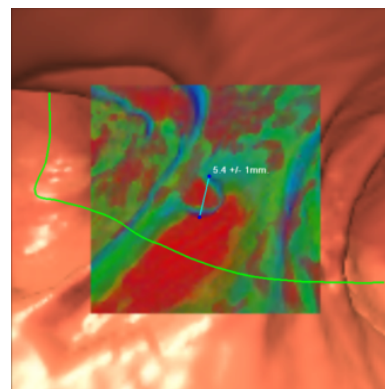

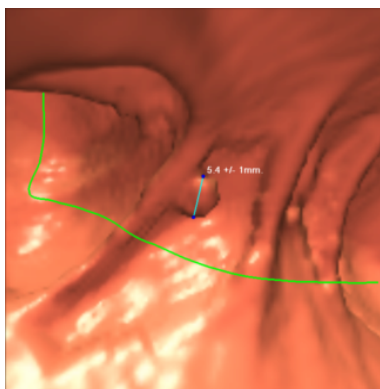

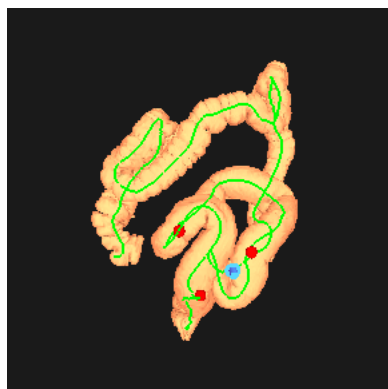

A 59 year old male presents with:

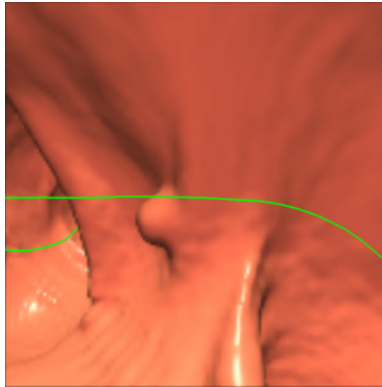

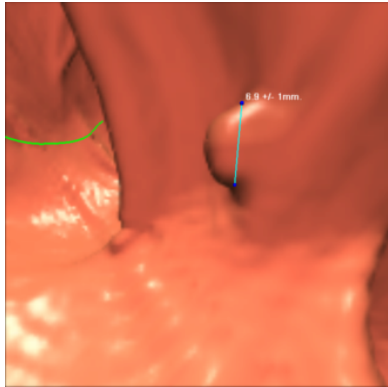

Screening

Others: 58 yo AAM here for enrollment into Virtual Colonoscopy protocol. Patient states doing well w/o change in BM, wt loss, blood in stool. Patient ave risk for colon cancer w/o FH of colonic polyps, colon ca or polyposis syndromes. Patient w/o positive stool guiac test or h/o iron def anemia w/in past 6 months. Patient has had no prior evaluations for colon cancer screening including normal colonoscopies w/in 10 yrs, and normal ACBE w/in past 5 yrs. Patient w/o h/o adenomatous polyps, colorectal cancer, IBD, HNPCC or FAPS. No h/o rectal bleeding, hematochezia, or unintentional wt loss w/in past 12 months. Patient has no contraindications for colonoscopy in general or to fleets prep.

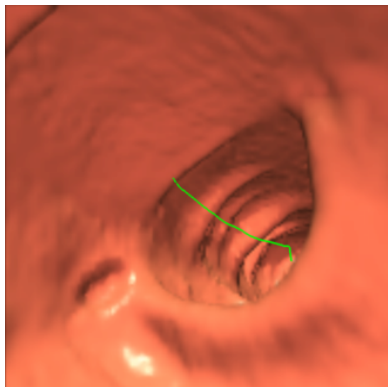

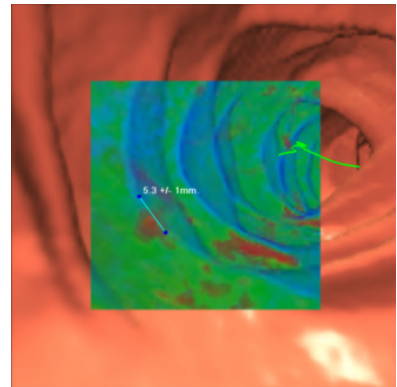

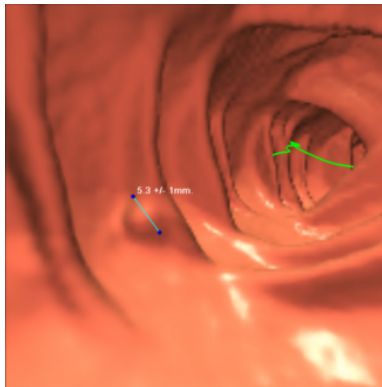

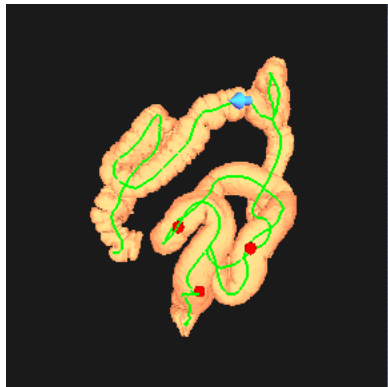

COLON FINDINGS:

(Supine) 5.4 x 0.0 mm round polyp identified in the descending colon at 97.1 cm from rectum.
Comments: - 5-6mm pedunculated polyp

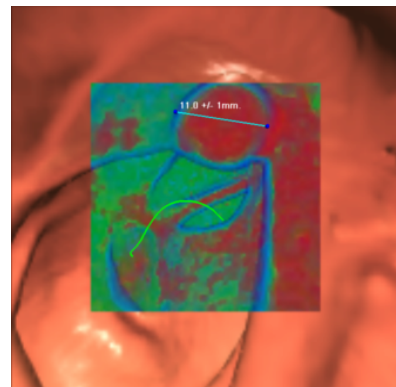

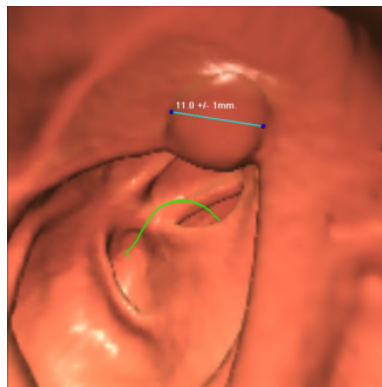

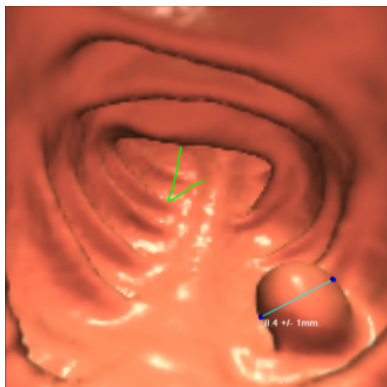

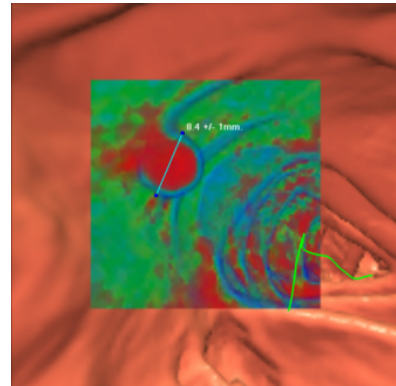

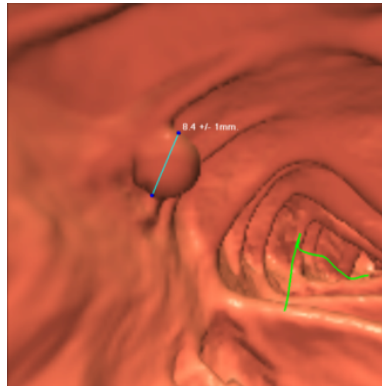

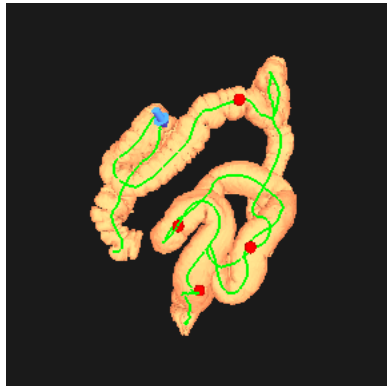

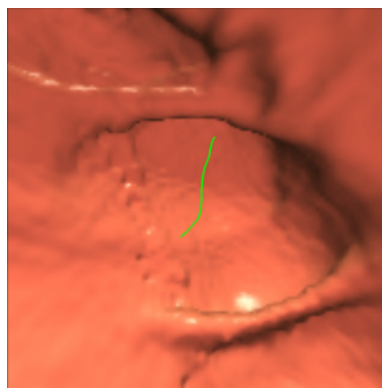

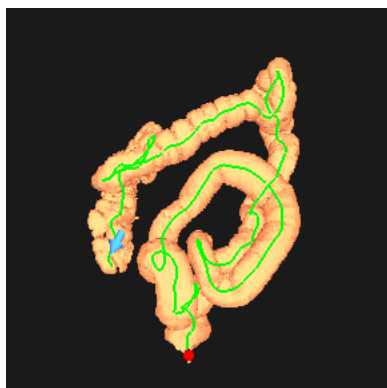

(Supine) Normal finding in the ascending colon at 147.1 cm from rectum.
Comments: - some kind of artifact

(Supine) 8.4 x 0.0 mm round polyp identified in the ascending colon at 179.3 cm from rectum.
Comments: - 9 mm pedunculated polyp

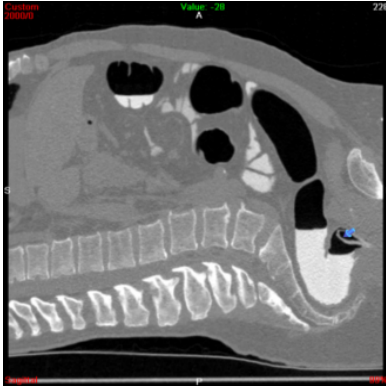

(Prone) Normal finding in the cecum at 205.5 cm from rectum.
Comments: - cecum

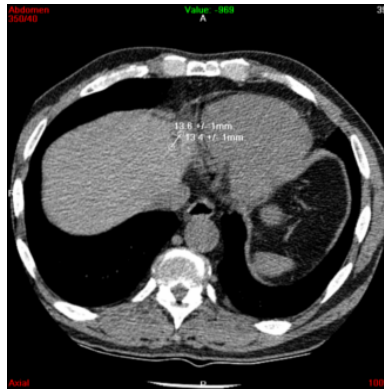

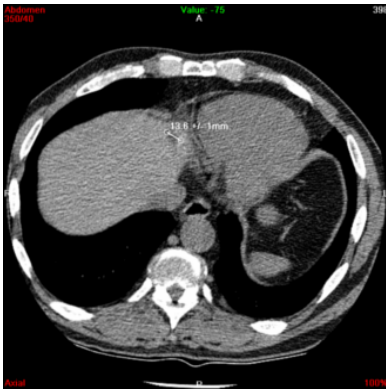

EXTRA-COLONIC FINDINGS:

Extra-colonic finding.
Comments: - osteophytes L4-5

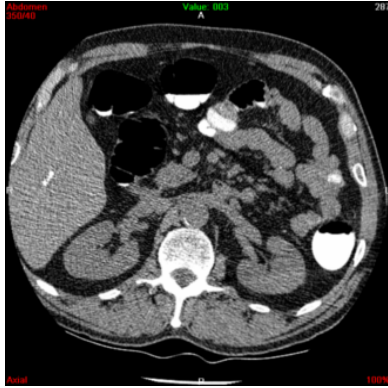

Extra-colonic finding.
Comments: - 13 mm liver lesion likely a cyst

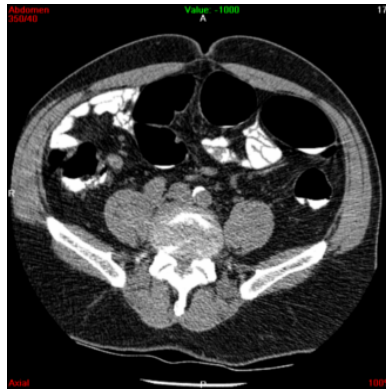

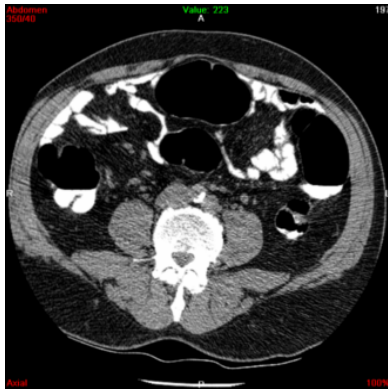

Extra-colonic finding.

Comments: - Liver calcifications, probably granulomas, are there any in chest?

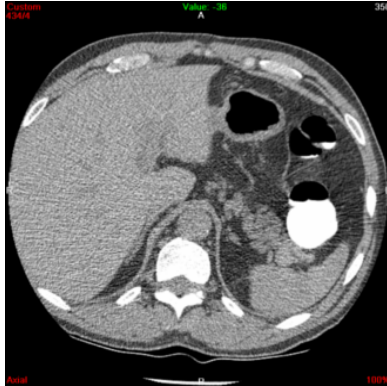

Extra-colonic finding.

Comments: - atherosclerosis of iliacs

Extra-colonic finding.

Comments: - hopefully an accessory spleen in tail of pancreas

OTHER FINDINGS:

- Mild arterial calcification : mild calcification in the iliac arteries
- 1.3 x 0.0 cm left lobe lateral segment liver cyst : 13 mm lucency likely cyst lateral left lobe
- Miscellaneous other : clumped calcifications in liver. ? Granulomata. Can sonogram depending on colonoscopy results
- Miscellaneous other : osteophyte formation L4-5
- Miscellaneous other : ? accessory spleen in tail of pancreas

IMPRESSION

- 2 pedunculated polyps, one sigmoid-descending and one hepatic flexure

Irwin M. Feuerstein, MD